BIOGRAPHY

Revelations 21:4: "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

Kimberly Adrian Jones, 35 years young, entered eternal rest on February 8, 2022. Kim was preceded in death by her grandmother; Alice Jones, grandfather; James W. Inman, aunt Gloria Jones, and cousin Bryan Waters.

Kim's presence and light on this earth will truly be missed by all she encountered. Kim wore many hats in this lifetime she was a mother, daughter, granddaughter, sister, niece, and cousin. From the memories and laughs that we've shared throughout the years those experiences will forever be present in our hearts and minds. Reflecting on Kim's life she was the type of person to give her all to the people that she loved, and her joyful spirit never allowed her to meet a stranger. Her intelligence and willingness to help others was immensely priceless. Kim lived with the condition of type 1 diabetes, however she never let her ailment limit what she desired to accomplish in life. Kim's life is a true testament of that no matter what you are going through you can always accomplish whatever you put your mind to.

Kim's life was vibrant, and she accomplished so much on this earth. As a graduate of Lake View High School, class of 2004, Kim received a scholarship to Winthrop University. She would forgo that opportunity to embark in her career at Walgreens in August 2008. No stranger to a strong work ethic, Kim became a beauty advisor then would later perform several other roles such as photo technician, a team lead, and a store shift leader. In addition to her vast experience, she would achieve her pharmacy technician certification in 2010. On April 29, 2021, her perseverance would be acknowledged as Kim would be promoted to the Emerging Store Manager position.

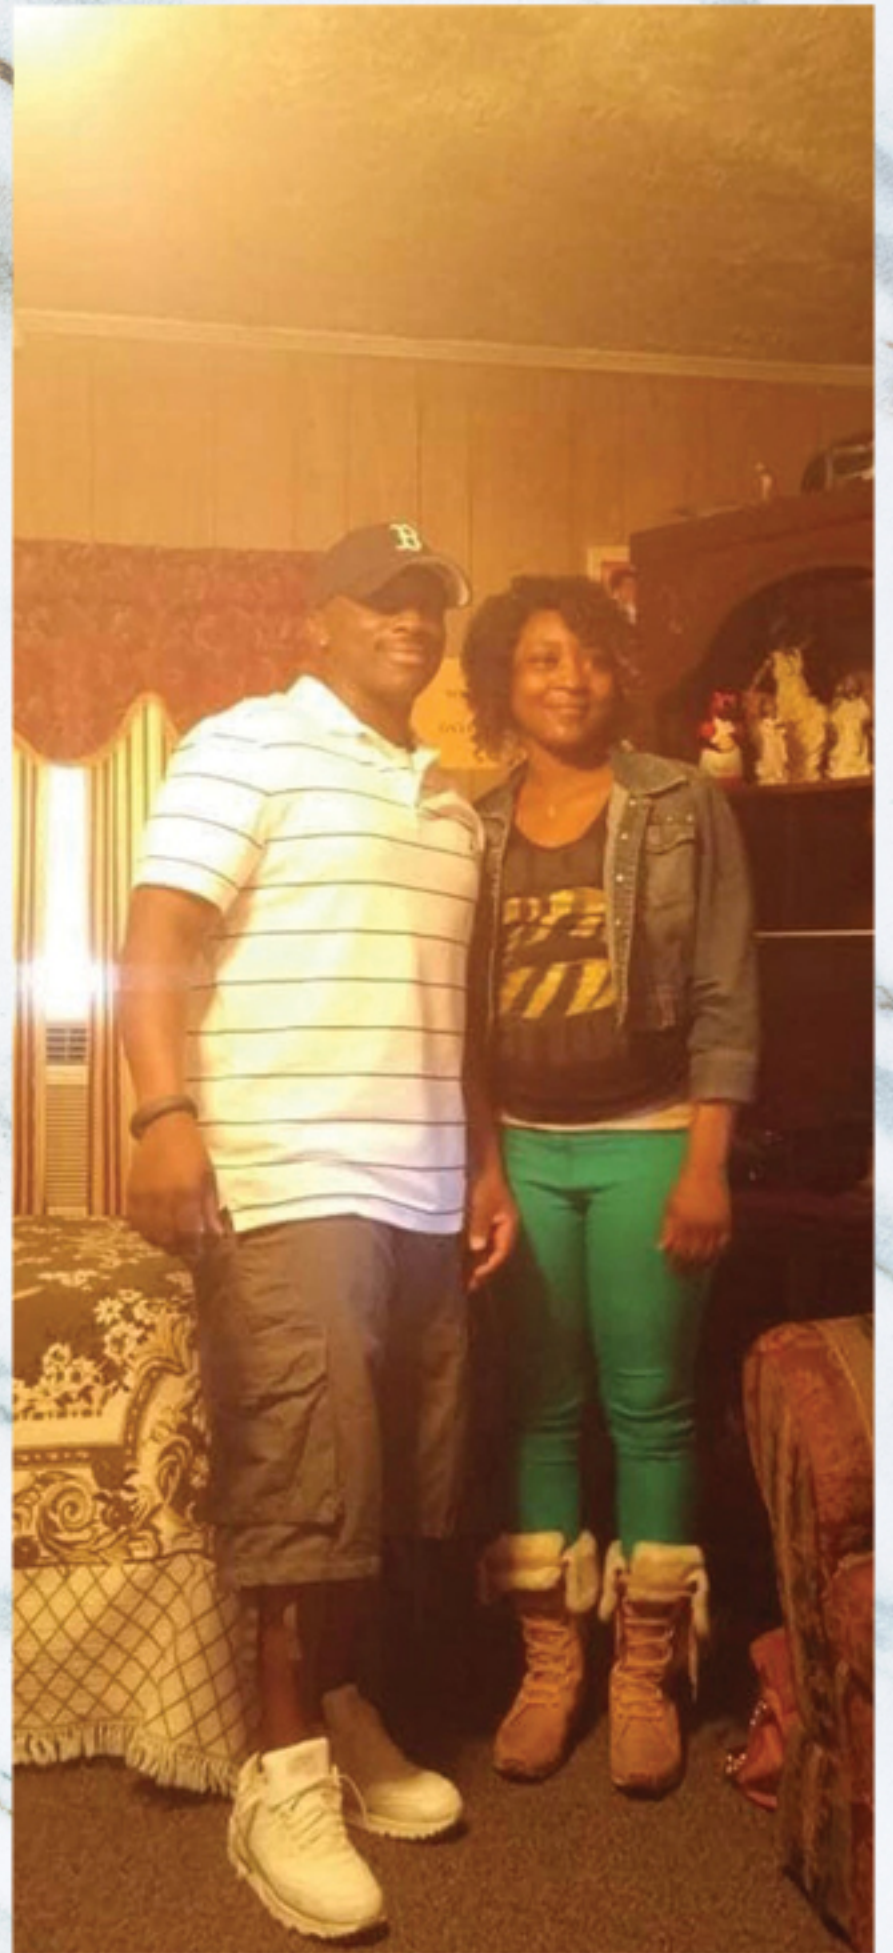

Throughout her tenure at Walgreens, she built a second family with her peers that will truly miss her. Even while career driven, her greatest accomplishment and legacy on this earth is her vibrant and intelligent son Jaden Jones. Jaden was the aspiration of her life and kept Kim motivated to achieve every accomplishment that she set for herself. With her motivation to push forward she made sure that Jaden was her top priority.

Kim leaves to cherish her son Jaden Jones of Lake View, SC; mother Lori Ann Davis of Nichols, SC; father Larry Inman(Annie) of Dillon, SC; grandmother Edith Inman of Dillon, SC; sister Timeka Jones of Sellers, SC; sister Amber Davis of Abilene, TX; brother Christopher Hayes of Fayetteville, NC; brother Kendrick Whittington of Dillon, SC; brother Larry Inman of Dillon, SC; brother Isaiah Davis of Mullins, SC; sister Malykia Purdy of Mullins, SC; uncle Robert Jones of Lake View, SC; aunt Thomasine Waters(Donald) of Lake View, SC; aunt Carlotta Jones of Lake View, SC; aunt Shirley Burroughs (Hoyt) of Gastonia, NC; aunt Barbara Pittman(Joe) of Thomasville, NC; aunt Edith Kelly of Dillon, SC; uncle Wayne Inman(Thomasena) of Columbia, SC; uncle James Inman(Kelly) of Columbia, SC; uncle James Scott of Dillon, SC; great aunt Elizabeth Bethea of Dillon, SC; great aunt Vera McNeil of Brooklyn, NY; great aunt Beatrice McNeil of Brooklyn, NY; great aunt Edna Jones of Augusta, GA; and great aunt Eva Blue of Ft. Walton Beach, FL.

Gone Too Soon

*Words cannot describe the loss I feel
Saying farewell to you,
But heaven chose to give you wings
And now it's time you flew.
I wish that we could have more time,
That God had let you stay.
Forever would not be long enough
But I would take one day.
I wish I had just one more chance
To see that tender smile,
To laugh with you again my dear
Just for a little while.
Gone too soon, but not forgotten,
Forever you will remain,
My guiding light, my shining star,
Until I see your face again.*

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
