OBITUARY

Virginia (Little Mae) was born in Hamer, S.C. on November 14, 1936 to the late Nola Mae McMillan and R.C. McMillan.

Virginia was educated in the public schools of Dillon County. She lived most of her life in Philadelphia, P.A. In 2006, she relocated back home where she resided with her daughter until God called her home.

Virginia was preceded in death by two sons, Kenneth and Larry McMillan; two brothers, Henry P. (Cann) and Roscoe McMillan and one sister, Albertha (Doll) McNair.

Virginia leaves to cherish her fond memories, one daughter, Mary (Charles) McCrimmon of the home; one son, Johnny McMillan; a special friend, Debbie Leggette of Latta, S.C.; one daughter-in-law, Georgia Mae McMillan of Bingham, S.C.; one brother, Robert (Courtney) McMillan of Bingham, S.C.; special friend, Katherine Johnson of Philadelphia, P.A.; 17 grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren and family and friends.

To My Mother

I thank you for the years we had together on this side and I pray that we will be together again:

If I only knew...

There are so many things that I want to say

if I only knew how much pain

you endured I would have tried to endure

it with you. If I only knew that this day I'd be living without you...

If I only knew...

Your baby girl "Pigeon"

Recessional Final Glimpse

The Broken Chain

Author: Ron Tranmer

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Acknowledgement

*A special thanks to all the staff and management to Regency Hospice and especially Meredith, Brittany, Jody and "Me-me" you guys went above and beyond.
May God bless all of you.*

A special thank you to my children; cousins and friends for being by my side through out the journey—I love you more...
