

Remember Me

A Poem for Our Beloved Grandmother

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more day by day,
You tell me of our future that you planned.
Only remember me; you understand.
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet, if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
For the darkness and corruption leave.
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should remember and be sad.

Peace My Heart

A Poem for A Beloved Mother N Law

Let the last touch of your hands be
Gentle like the flower of the night.
Stand still, O Beautiful End, for a moment, and say your last words in silence.
I bow to you and hold up my lamp to light you on your way.
You've Just Walked on Ahead of Me.
